

Conditions of Use

Thank you for choosing Triad Pediatrics.

This website is designed to allow easier access to medical records and appointment scheduling.

By creating a user account, you agree to use this site only for its intended purpose. If at any time the service is not available, you may reach us by phone. There is no charge for use of this site, but we also cannot be held responsible for any errors or technical problems you may encounter by use of this site.

In the event that you need to contact us through the website after business hours, please know that messages from this site are only monitored and responded to during normal business hours. In case of an emergency dial 911.